Dear Felix,

I wanted to reach out to you and let you know that I am working with Kevin Bass, and I am planning to be there on Monday at 8:00 a.m. for the hearing.

After meeting with Kevin, and being from a family that has struggled with ADHD and other neurodivergent conditions, I had a strong suspicion that this is a strong factor in Kevin's case, and could explain the things that have happened. I asked that Kevin undergo a psychological evaluation. I have received the results back, and Kevin has been diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) (formerly Asperger's), ADHD, and GAD (Generalized Anxiety Disorder). I have requested a copy of the assessment from his clinician, and will provide that to you. I have also advised Mr. Bass to make a request for accommodation through SDS.

I am notifying you because this impacts our hearing on Monday. I have asked the clinician to provide me with a list of necessary accommodations, and will forward that to you. I want to make sure that Mr. Bass is not adversely affected in light of his diagnosis.

Thanks, in advance, for your assistance.

Rob
