CIVIL ACTION NO. 5:20-CV-232-H-BQ

ORDER

On January 22, 2021, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss. ECF No. 11. Local Rule 7.4 of the Northern District of Texas provides “[t]he initial responsive pleading or motion filed in lieu of a responsive pleading that a defendant files in a civil action must be accompanied by a separately signed certificate of interested persons that complies with [Local Rule] 3.1(c) or 3.2(e).” Defendants have not filed the required disclosure. The Court therefore ORDERS that Defendants shall, no later than March 10, 2021, file the required certificate of interested persons so that the Court can ensure that recusal is not required in this case. Defendants’ failure to comply with this Order may result in the imposition of sanctions, including recommendation that the district judge enter default judgment.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: March 3, 2021.

D. GORDON BRYANT, JR.
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
